Dear Pete,

Congratulations! The readers of Metal Roofing Magazine have told us that you're doing a good job for them. That makes Metro Roof Products a winner in our fifth annual Metal of Honor program.

Our readers were asked to vote for their favorite suppliers in the metal roofing industry. They told us who they felt had the best products, provided the best service, competitive prices and dependable delivery. Just more than 250 companies were mentioned on ballots received and Metro was among the companies ranked in the top 10 percent.

As a Metal of Honor winner, chosen by the 29,000-plus readers of Metal Roofing Magazine, Metro will receive a Metal of Honor plaque and the opportunity for free matching editorial coverage with your minimum half-page ad in our April-May 2009 issue.

So congratulations! You're doing a good job! Soon, you'll be receiving more information about winning the Metal of Honor.

Sincerely,

Jim Austin
